BASE RECORDS OFFICE, A.I.F.,
31st May, 1919.

Dear Madam,

I have much pleasure in forwarding hereunder copy of extract from Supplement No. 31082 to the London Gazette dated 26th December, 1918, relating to the conspicuous services rendered by your husband, the late No. 1153 Corporal (temporary) L. C. Weathers, 43rd Battalion.

x x x x

AWARDED THE VICTORIA CROSS

"HIS MAJESTY THE KING has been graciously pleased to approve of the award of the Victoria Cross to the undermentioned non-commissioned officer :-

No. 1153 Lance-Corporal (temporary Corporal)

LAWRENCE CARTHAGE WEATHERS.

For most conspicuous bravery and devotion to duty on the 2nd September, 1918, north of Peronne, when with an advanced bombing party. The attack having been held up by a strongly-held enemy trench, Corporal Weathers went forward alone, under heavy fire, and attacked the enemy with bombs. Then, returning to our lines for a further supply of bombs, he again went forward with three comrades and attacked under very heavy fire. Regardless of personal danger, he mounted the enemy parapet and bombed the trench, and, with the support of his comrades, captured 180 prisoners and three machine guns. His valour and determination resulted in the successful capture of the final objective, and saved the lives of many of his comrades. "

The above has been promulgated in Commonwealth of Australia Gazette, No. 61 dated 23rd May, 1919.

Yours faithfully,

Mrs. A.I. Weathers,
Franklin Street,
Fullerton Estate,

Major.
Officer i/c Base Records.

Captain J.T. Moran, 43rd Battalion A.I.F. States I was in command of "A" Company 43rd Battalion on 29th Sept. 1918. On that day we had been held up and received instructions to move forward that evening in close support to 41st Bn. We were then at QUENNET HUGH Trench, between ROSUOY and BONY about 6 p.m. a shell burst amongst a small group of men, killing one Private Sais, and wounding about 6 others including No.1153. T/Cpl Weathers L.C. and No.5770. L/Cpl Weathers J.J. both of whom were badly injured and were unconscious. T/Cpl Weathers L.C. was removed at once by stretcher bearers to 41st Battalion R.A.P. I was then under the impression that L/Cpl Weathers J.J. was dead. After the company had completed its advance, I sent two or three men back to bury Pte Sais and L/Cpl Weathers J.J. they returned to me with the information that L/Cpl Weathers J.J. was not dead, and had been removed to 41st Battalion R.A.P. soon after the Company had moved forward. I produce duplicate of Company Casualty Return for 30th Sept. 1918. shewing T/Cpl Weathers L.C. and L/Cpl Weathers J.J. as wounded.

WEATHERS, Cpl. Lawrence Carthage, 1153, V.C. 43rd Bn. Australian Inf. Died of wounds 29th Sept., 1918. Son of John Joseph and Ellen Frances Johanna Weathers; husband of Annie E. Weathers, of "Te Kopuru," Main Avenue, Frewville, South Australia. Native of North Wairo, New Zealand. An extract from The London Gazette, No. 31082, dated 24th Dec., 1918, records the following:—"For most conspicuous bravery and devotion to duty on the 2nd September, 1918, north of Peronne, when with an advanced bombing party. The attack having been held up by a strongly held enemy trench, Cpl. Weathers went forward alone under heavy fire and attacked the enemy with bombs. Then returning to our lines for a further supply of bombs, he again went forward with three comrades, and attacked under very heavy fire. Regardless of personal danger, he mounted the enemy parapet and bombed the trench, and with the support of his comrades, captured 180 prisoners and three machine guns. His valour and determination resulted in the successful capture of the final objective, and saved the lives of many of his comrades." III. C. 5.

WEATHERS.

On the 2nd September 1918 during operations North of PERONNE, Lance Corporal WEATHERS was one of an advanced bombing party operating well forward of our attacking troops.

Just before the attack reached its final objective it was held up by the enemy who occupied a trench in great numbers.

After an hours continuous fighting Lance-Corporal WEATHERS went forward alone in face of heavy enemy fire and located a large body of them. He immediately attacked the enemy with bombs and killed the senior Officer, then made his way back to our lines and securing a further supply of bombs and taking three men with him he went forward and again attacked under very heavy fire. On reaching the enemy position he jumped up on the parapet of the trench and threw bombs among the Bosche. He then signalled for his comrades to come up, and the remainder of the enemy ^{sawing this} prisoners surrendered. When counted the number of prisoners totalled 180 and three Machine Guns. The bravery of this N.C.O. cleared a very difficult situation and the fearless way in which Lance-Corporal WEATHERS attacked confused the enemy and resulted in the successful vapture of the final objective with a minimum number of casualties to our troops.
