Dear Sir,

It has just come to my knowledge that my late brother No. 4446 Lce-Corp. Leslie H. Broadbent, of the Great War No. 1, and who was killed in action on the 18th September 1918 was awarded the Croix de Guerre, and as his next of kin I thought that it would have been forwarded to me, but as this was not the case I thought that perhaps you could enlighten me on the subject, especially as I saw an advertisement in the paper that you were holding some of these decorations of the last war.

I therefore ask that should his be among them that you please forward it to me in order that I may place it in the frame alongside of his Military Medal which he also won in the field.

Thanking you

Yours faithfully,

L Broadbent

Dear Sir

I have just received from London a publication entitled History of 10th Battalion A.I.F. printed by Cassell & Co. Limited La Belle Sauvage London E.C. in which it states on page 87 that my son "4446 Private L. H. Broadbent" was awarded the M.M. on 11th August 1918 at Lihons

I would mention that this publication also states that he was killed when Lieut-Capt on the 18th Sept 1918

It is now 10 months since the Honour was awarded my son, & up to the present I have not received any communication from any military Dept in reference there-to.

Could you inform me whether the Military Medal will be forwarded to me?
